1) Editor's Greeting:

Hello everyone, and welcome to our new subscribers!

Please note we have changed our domain name from www.intelinfo.com to www.intelligentedu.com. Please update your bookmarks and links to our site.

This is the July 2005 issue of our free monthly newsletter for Computer IT Education, Training, & Tutorial Resources providing you with the latest Free online IT Training Resources that we have recently discovered and researched. This newsletter is free to anyone subscribing (instructions at bottom, no username/password is needed). To access our member site, however, you do need a user name and password - registering as a member of Intelligentedu.com costs $15 for two months, for more information please see Become a Member of Intelligentedu.com.

My desire is that these free resources will help you with your computer education and training and are tools to advance your IT career. Our main mission is the training of those less fortunate who are seeking to become computer literate, both technically and from a user's perspective.

In this issue we describe and link to a total of 40 computer, IT and programming learning and tutorial web sites. By means of this email newsletter, you have knowledge of and access to these sites before our web site visitors do.

Current News ***

Please take a look at my new blogs, these will be updated weekly with new free training and tutorial web resources, as I discover and evaluate them:

Please Visit Our New Free Training & Tutorial Search Engine -

<http://www.edcomp.com>! - We have deployed a new website at Edcomp.com that is a search engine with a large database of over 140,000 free IT education and training web resources, with another 50,000 free resources reserved exclusively for paid members. If you're an Intelligentedu.com Member, go to members.Edcomp.com to access the special members' page for searching over 190,000 free training web resources.

All of the links for these 190,000 free web resources have been validated, so you should not get any broken ones. We are also caching all previous results pages to help you find all the free training content and materials you need and are looking for. So check out our new free IT training search engine now, and if you'd like to, please provide me your feedback. Again, the url is: <http://www.edcomp.com/>. Thank you.

For your convenience, this newsletter is also available to subscribers in HTML format at this special url: http://www.intelligentedu.com/current_news.html

I wish you the best with your computer studies and learning.

Warm Regards,

Scott Turton

The C# Tutorial:

<http://www.softsteel.co.uk/tutorials/cSharp/cIndex.html>

<http://www.softsteel.co.uk/tutorials/cSharp/contents.html>

This tutorial is aimed at people with some programming experience, although it tries not to assume too much knowledge. It covers the syntax of C#, rather than going through the .NET framework classes.

The Advanced C#/.NET Tutorial:

http://my.execpc.com/~gopalan/dotnet/net_tutorial.html

In this advanced tutorial you can learn more about C#, .NET, ASP+, ADO.NET, Remoting, Web Services, Messaging, WinForms, and WebForms.

Free ASP.NET Training Course:

<http://msdn.microsoft.com/asp.net/learn/default.aspx>

Microsoft is offering a free 17 hour hands-on ASP.NET training course. This course is normally $349 but for a limited time they are offering it for free. The course is titled "Developing Microsoft ASP.NET Web Applications Using Visual Studio .NET". The free offer is in the upper right hand corner of the page.

Free ASP.NET 2.0 Training CD:

<http://www.appdev.com/promo.asp?page=SN00009>

AppDev has produced a 3 hour ASP.NET 2.0 CD-ROM Training. They offer this CD training for both C# and VB.NET developers. Go to <http://www.appdev.com/promo.asp?page=SN00009> and scroll down to the blue and yellow box that says FREE CD to get your copy.

Certification Zone:

<http://www.certificationzone.com>:

Certification Zone provides many training tutorials to help you prepare for the Microsoft MCSE and Cisco Certification Exams. These are also very helpful for studying for the CompTIA Network+ cert exam.. All them are listed and linked here.

3) New Free Computer IT Books, Publications & Book Sites:

Some of these web resources will be added to our Free IT Books page at http://www.intelligentedu.com/free_computer_books.html and some will be added to our members site.

SunSITE India - Virtual Library:
<http://sunsite.iisc.ernet.in/virlib/>

This site hosts free computer, programming, and I.T. books covering Java, JavaScript, Perl, Unix, Linux, ActiveX, HTML, CGI, Apache, TCP/IP, CORBA, Intranets, and Network Security. Though most are a little dated, they still offer good learning and training content.

Index of er.utt.ro.public/Docs:

<http://www.et.utt.ro/public/Docs/>

This site hosts many freely available books in these areas: ASP, Access, ActiveX, Apache, AI, Assembler, C, C++, CGI, Client-Server, Web Applets, Database Programming, Delphi, HTML, Hardware, Intranets Work, IFC, IPX, Java, JavaBeans, JavaScript, Linux, Red Hat Linux, Unix, Security, Neural Networks, Object-Oriented, Oracle, Perl, Visual C++, Visual Basic, Web Programming, and XML.

Index of /diverse/Linux:

<http://glenn.freax.no/diverse/Linux/>

This site hosts several excellent Books and Guides covering Linux Setup, Administration and Security.

carfield.com.hk: books:

<http://www.carfield.com.hk/document/books/>

Here is a good site for many Java related ebooks and chapters, along with a selection of I.T. books in several areas, including networking, Perl, SQL, and web development. (Remove "?wrapped=true&" from the end of the hyperlinks to download the files.)

Many, many free ebooks covering I.T., Development, O.S., networking, database, security. Look at the links on the right and left columns:

Here is another repository of freely available computer, I.T., and programming books. The development books are mainly about how to program in C++.

Stigma.Dyndns.org:

<http://www.stigma.dyndns.org/files/eBooks/>

Here is an excellent site hosting many online books covering I.T areas such as programming, software development, system administration, networking, Linux, Unix, MySQL, and Dreamweaver. Programming topics include C++, C#, VB.Net, Java, Perl, CGI and Tcl.

7) I.T. Sites and Free Downloads Worth Mentioning:

CCleaner:

<http://www.ccleaner.com/>

CCleaner is a freeware system optimization and privacy tool. It removes unused files from your system - allowing Windows to run faster and freeing up valuable hard disk space.

AVG Antivirus Free Edition:

<http://free.grisoft.com/doc/2/Ing/us/tpl/v5>

This anti-virus protection tool is available free-of-charge to home users for the life of the product. Virus database updates are freely available for the lifetime of the product.

TrojanScan:

<http://www.windowsecurity.com/trojanscan/>

Scan your system for trojans using this free online trojan scanner. Anti trojan software will allow you to scan and stop trojans from entering your network.

8) Question of the Month about Technical Training:

Each month Scott Turton will answer a current or important question that we have received about computer and IT training and career development.

July 2005 Question of the Month: Please describe another method you find free computer training on the web, as you did in last month's question of the month.

Answer:

Here is another type of google search you can do to find the free computer training, tutorials and books that you are looking for.

Type in your keywords, followed by "(books OR tutorial) (pdf OR zip OR chm OR rar) -purchase -buy -shopping -review" without the double quotes. So, for example, doing a search for Enterprise Java Beans, you would enter the following into google's search box

(without the double quotes): "java ejb enterprise beans (books OR tutorial) (pdf OR zip OR chm OR rar) -purchase -buy -shopping -review"

Here are the URLs of 4 google searches using this method:

Enterprise Java Beans

Oracle Database SQL

Web Development Perl PHP

C# Sharp VB ASP dot Net

You can change the search terms somewhat, using only 'books' or 'tutorial', for example, or adding more or less keywords in the beginning of the search phrase.

You will still need to dig a little into the results of these searches, but you should find what you're looking for. I recommend reviewing at least 100, and preferable 200 search results from these searches to find the best free training content and materials.
